INTERNATIONAL LABOR DAY [01-05-2025]

Smt. Jawala Devi College of Education, Cordia Group of Institutes, Sanghol, Punjab, in collaboration with GIO, celebrated International Labor Day on May 1st, 2025, to recognize and honor the invaluable contributions of its workforce. The program began with a warm welcome to all fourth-class employees of the Cordia Group, appreciating their dedicated service. The Principal opened the event with an address emphasizing the dignity of labor. Dr. Ravi P. Mishra, Head Academics, highlighted the need for awareness about workers' rights in educational settings. Executive Trustee Dr. Urmil Verma in her speech praised the silent yet significant role of support staff in the growth of the institution, stressing that real progress is possible only when every hand that contributes is acknowledged and respected. Chairman Lord Rana Sir delivered a deeply moving address, reflecting on his personal journey and expressing heartfelt gratitude to all workers, stating that no job is small and every effort adds value to the larger mission of nation-building. A touching short documentary on laborers was screened, after which all support staff were honored with 'Prasasti Patras' (Letters of Thanks) presented by the Chairman and Executive Trustee. The event concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks delivered by Dr. Harjinder Singh, who expressed appreciation to all dignitaries, staff, and students for making the celebration memorable and meaningful. Dr. Paramjeet Kaur Mangat, Ms. Amita Sharma, Mr. Bikram Singh, and other faculty members were also present in the gathering, contributing to the success and warmth of the occasion.
